

Call for Co-Design Workshop Participants!

Be Part of the Multi-presence Language Revitalization Project Kwän Dék'án' Do (“To keep the fire burning”)

We are looking for members of the First Nation of Na-Cho Nyäk Dun (FN-NND) who can participate in design workshops for development of cultural and language education digital experiences and applications.

The workshops will be online using Zoom with the possibility of all attendees from Mayo, Yukon, together in one location and using a single connection via Zoom. Each session will be about two hours, where the goals of the application and its design will be discussed.

Contact: If you are interested or have any questions, either email Esther Winter at info@kwandekando.ca or call her at (867) 689-4144. You may also connect with one of the individuals listed below for more information and a consent form.

This project is approved by FN-NND and Carleton University Research Ethics Board (CUREB-B Clearance # 124648 ) and is managed by FN-NND Heritage Manager, Teresa Samson, and Carleton University faculty members, Troy Anderson (Troy.Anderson@carleton.ca) and Ali Arya (Ali.Arya@carleton.ca). To participate, you need to be at least 18 years old, speak English for project communications, and be a member of FN-NND. Should you have any ethical concerns with this study, please contact ethics@carleton.ca.